

Europe Business Assembly

International Award

'European Quality Award'

for aspiration to achieve high quality in accordance with European standard

John Netting,
EBA Director General,
Oxford, UK

Speech is silver, but silence is golden

This proverb is surely right in many situations. But to share our experiences, we need a continuous dialogue between people, organizations and industries. EBA cares about that dialogue and has therefore organized different business events in the areas of education and investment.

We organize the International Socrates Award Ceremony to recognize the best professionals and give them international recognition for their success. We also facilitate continuous dialogue by networking them with other successful people. Our dedicated, accessibly and highly qualified staff are an essential part of EBA experience and will help you achieve your networking goals in variety of ways.

About EBA

Our mission is to enforce and support the exchange of experience and the development of the economy, education and culture as well as socio areas between European countries.

Therefore, EBA's main activities are to arrange national and international business forums, congresses and exhibitions. European and world personalities are awarded for their personal contributions or professional achievements.

Outlining the best experience

One of the most important objectives of EBA is continuously enhance and promote the reputation of commercial, educational, cultural leaders who, through their hard work and exceptional business sense, support the exchange of ideas and experiences in culture, education, economy and finance as well as socio areas.

The purpose of Socrates Awards is ongoing promotion of the world elite, who through their hard work and exceptional business sense, support an exchange of ideas and experiences amongst the international community in the areas such as economics, politics, education and culture.

Through careful selection process by the International Socrates Committee, which picks the most deserving award recipients, Socrates award ceremony honours their professional achievements and gives the international recognition for their success.

Socrates Award Ceremony takes place twice a year in Oxford, UK.
